77 QMJHL players invited to NHL camps

The Quebec Major Junior Hockey League is proud to announce that 77 of its players will be going to a professional camp of the National Hockey League in September. Among them, the CHL player of the year, Val-d'Or Foreurs' Anthony Maczka will attend the Detroit Red Wings camp.

Nikolaj Ehlers (HAI), rookie of the year in the CHL, will be at the Winnipeg Jets' camp. At the Montreal Canadiens' camp, prospects Jeremy Grigore (SAC), Immo Bokunji (SAC), Alexandre Goulet (CHA), Marc-Olivier Crivier-Norm (GAT), Zach Fucala (HAI), Phil Gaudoury (HAI), Daniel Audette (SHE) and Matthew Higmore (SHE) will try to impress the coaches.

Here's the full list of all our players that have been drafted or invited to participate in a professional camp:
